References :- Excise Commrs No: 24771/228 D/7/10/95-

SECTION S. R
FILE NO. 86 of 95-6
SERIAL NO.

The Excise Commrs state that the Temporary Detective Asst Supervisors having been brought on the permanent establishment, need furniture, and submits an estimate for Rs 186/-

2. It should be reported how these men have managed since 1890 - the time of their entertainment temporarily.

(3) The Temporary establishment has not yet been finally brought on the permanent scale pending Govt: passing orders on the "Amalgamation scheme" of the Arrack and Toddy Staff and not till the Excise Commrs reports how he proposes to work the "Selective" staff so as to secure more practical results. Both these files are with the Revenue Secretary.

× Resubmitted on 8/10/95-

× Resubmitted on 8/10/95-

(4) Till these two points alluded to in para 3 are finally disposed of the men may use the furniture they have been using since 1890. It would be of very doubtful advantage to give detective assistant Supervisors chairs and tables and thus lead them to infer that they are to be taken over.

with to their desks instead of being out in the villages early and late on detective and preventive work (for which they have been specially entertained). In this respect they certainly are not on the same footing as the men of the same rank in the "General Branch" who have accounts and returns to send in and so need chairs and tables. The next application will be, I apprehend, for carriage hire to take these boxes, chairs &c with them when on out-door work.
